CADENCE McSHANE COMPLETES RETAIL CONSTRUCTION ASSIGNMENT AT TOMBALL MARKETPLACE

(New Retail Storefronts Expand Developer Weingarten Realty's Successful Tomball Marketplace in Far Northwest Houston Area)

(Houston, Texas) – Chuck White, Vice President - Division Manager of Cadence McShane Construction Company, is pleased to announce that the Tomball Marketplace expansion project has been completed by the firm on behalf of developer, Weingarten Realty. The Tomball Marketplace Shopping Center is a 372,484 square foot retail development located on the southwest corner of the new SH 249 bypass and FM 2920 that serves as a regional retail hub for the growing populations in Tomball and Montgomery County. National retailers also located at this prominent intersection include Target, Lowe's, Kroger, Office Depot and PetSmart.

Cadence McShane's assignment included the comprehensive infrastructure for the new Kohl's Department Store as well as the construction of two additional retail facilities within the development. The 13,200 square foot Retail Building "C" shell facility features a tiltwall exterior with cast stone accents along with attractive glass storefronts to provide options for both a single- or multi-tenant retail store environment. Cadence McShane also constructed a new 25,000 square foot store for national retailer, Marshall's, featuring an attractive and low-maintenance EIFS exterior that highlights the design details of both the retailer and the shopping complex. More than 38,200 square feet of new construction has been added to the popular Tomball Marketplace in time for holiday shopping.

“The expansion of Tomball Marketplace marks yet another high-profile retail assignment completed for Weingarten Realty,” remarks White. “Our unwavering commitment to on-time project delivery allows our client to lease and guarantee occupancy in advance of the busy holiday retail season,” remarks White.

Houston, Texas-based CDA Architects provided the architectural services for this multi-building retail project.
