CADENCE McSHANE CONSTRUCTION COMPLETES NEW 282,000 S.F. C.A. McMILLEN HIGH SCHOOL FOR PLANO ISD

*(Two-Story Contemporary Educational Facility Welcomed
1,100 Students to its 2011-2012 Inaugural School Year)*

(Dallas, Texas) – Neal L. Harper, President of Cadence McShane Construction Company, is pleased to announce that the firm completed construction of the new C.A. McMillen High School on behalf of Plano Independent School District (Plano ISD). The new $37 million, 282,000 square foot educational campus is located on the northern segment of a 103-acre land site situated at 750 N. Murphy Road and is named after Mr. Comfort Allen McMillen, one of the earliest settlers in Murphy, Texas,.

The comprehensive assignment included the construction of 67 instructional spaces, 10 science laboratories, band and music spaces, a library and a full-service cafeteria and kitchen. In addition to the practice and competition gymnasiums, the campus offered several on-campus athletic venues such as practice softball and baseball fields, batting cages, a running track and practice football fields. The construction scope also encompassed a new surface parking lot to serve the faculty, students and visitors to the new high school.

The exterior of this two-story facility was comprised of an attractive combination of masonry, prairie stone and cast stone. The new C.A. McMillen High School accommodates ninth and tenth grade Plano ISD students living in Murphy and Plano within the County of Collin, Texas.

“This premier high school offers a contemporary learning environment for Plano ISD students for the academic year 2011-2012 and for many future years. Schools such as McMillen High School demonstrate Plano ISD’s commitment to educational excellence,” remarks Harper. “The Cadence McShane team was pleased to offer its extensive expertise in educational construction to meet the growth initiatives of Plano ISD.”

SHW Group provided the comprehensive architectural services for this state-of-the-art educational assignment.
